MASTER OF ARTS | PUBLIC MANAGEMENT IN INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

ACT LOCALLY, THINK GLOBALLY.

Improve international cooperation projects in the context of public administration with the Master's degree programme „Public Management in International Cooperation“.

During the distance learning phases, you will work in small, internationally mixed groups on tasks to prepare for and follow up on during the four attendance phases in Europe and Africa.

Learn how administrative staff from different countries work together across continents and successfully manage international projects.

African and European students learn together across continental borders in face-to-face and distance learning phases – thus realistically simulating the realisation of international projects.
